Talks on Catholic Action in November 2020

We invite you to attend, via Zoom, these talks by a number of our friends and supporters of the Order. All talks commence at 7.00 pm.

Tuesday 3rd November

An address by John Deighan CEO SPUC Scotland. He will speak about their work and will also have a Q&A session. Total time should be 30 minutes.

We invite all Brothers to drop-in and listen to this; in particular Action Officers and perhaps ask a question of John.

Tuesday 10th November

An update from Sheila, Ken & Sue on The John Foster Memorial Home, the National Action Project. They will give us details on what has been achieved so far and the outstanding requirements. This has been a very difficult time for The John Foster Home with it having to deal with COVID from such a distance.

Tuesday 17th November

Sister Rosanne will give us a talk on the work of the Sisters of the Gospel of Life. They were founded by the late Cardinal Thomas Winning in 1997. They continue their work on "Crisis Pregnancy" in Glasgow and across Scotland to this day. The Order have for many years supported their cause.

Tuesday 24th November

A talk and discussion by 'Aid to the Church in Need'. They were part of one of our National Action Projects some years ago. We will be updated on their work and support for people in India, Pakistan, Syria and more recently Beirut in the Lebanon, where that dreadful ammonium nitrate ignited exploded in a warehouse killing over 200 with many more injured but making 1000s homeless.

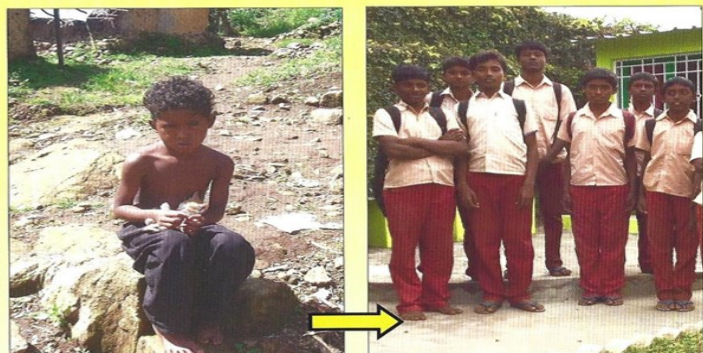

The Knights of St Columba celebrated their Founders Day on Monday 5th October, 101 years to the day since the first meeting of the Order in Glasgow.

Under the new Faith, Family and Fraternity initiative we would, under normal circumstances, have asked you to mark this date with Masses, the visiting of former Brothers etc, over the weekend and on the day, but given the Covid restrictions this year, the Supreme Knight invites all of you and your families to join with us in a Zoom Rosary which will also be streamed on Facebook at 7.00pm on Monday 26th October.

This Rosary, part of a chain throughout October, will be led by His Lordship, Bishop Alan Hopes, Bishop of East Anglia (see details above).
